Rev Sean Elliott who came to St. Anne's for his first parish placement while studying for the priesthood in Rome has just been ordained a Deacon last Thursday at St. Malachy's Halifax. We continue to pray for Sean at this time.

The Catholic Chaplaincy at Leeds prison would like to extend its sincere thanks to our SVP for the donations received at Christmas and Easter. This generosity has supported and given a message of hope to so many.

Elizabeth Prout was declared Venerable by Pope Francis on 21st January a crucial step closer to final recognition as a Saint. She dedicated her life to the service of the poor, working in the slums of Manchester. She founded a new religious order, the Sisters of the Cross and Passion. These sisters worked in Keighley from 1917 - 2001 as teachers at St. Anne's school and then later St. Joseph's and finally Holy Family. There are some prayer cards at the back of church to support the cause of her canonisation. We pray for the Sisters who worked in Keighley over the years.
