Elizabeth Prout was declared Venerable by Pope Francis on 21st January a crucial step closer to final recognition as a Saint. She dedicated her life to the service of the poor, working in the slums of Manchester. She founded a new religious order, the Sisters of the Cross and Passion. These sisters worked in Keighley from 1917 - 2001 as teachers at St. Anne's school and then later St. Joseph's and finally Holy Family. There are some prayer cards at the back of church to support the cause of her canonisation. We pray for the Sisters who worked in Keighley over the years.

The Ascension of the Lord is a special day of devotion in the liturgical year and this year as the children from Saint Anne's & Our Lady of Victories schools have not yet resumed school Masses there will not be Mass at 9.30am but there is a Mass at 12.30pm and a Sung Mass at 7.30pm. Confessions at 7.00pm.

The new lights were installed on Tuesday of last week in the sacristy and passage-way to the car port exit. Thank you for the donations that made this possible after the decorating was completed.
